I HAVE ANSWERS

Q: Do you have a list of preferred vendors to use?

A: Yes! We are an open vendor venue but we do have a list of recommendations. From wedding planners to florists and caterers, we have worked with some of the best companies in the industry & would love to share their information with you! We do require you to at least use a catering company that is full service and is licensed and insured!

Q: Do you require event insurance?

A: Yes, Special Event Liability Insurance is required and can be purchased through Nuptial. Proof of this Special Event Liability Insurance is required 45 days before your wedding at your design consultation.

Q: When do I need my final guest count?

A: You will need your final guest count numbers at your venue consultation meeting. This meeting takes places 45 days before your wedding date. Final payment will be made on this date as well as obtaining your event insurance.

Q: What are the rules at the end of the night/rental?

A: We ask that whatever you bring into the venue, you take with you at the end of the night. This includes any and all decor from your event, gifts, rentals, personal items, leftovers from dinner/desserts, etc. We also need help getting the extra trash into the trashcans at the end of the night. We'll take it to the dumpster from there.

Wildflower Ridge will also take care of tables, chairs, linens, and sanitation of the venue after each event.
